

Gibraltar: Challenge, Change & Continuity

The Friends of Gibraltar Oral History Project (1930 to 1970)

McGeever, Frank (Ser 215 / IWM 024617R03)

British private served with Black Watch Depot in GB, 1939; served with 4th Bn Black Watch in GB, France, Gibraltar and Morocco, 1939-1943; private and NCO served with 6th Bn Black Watch in North Africa and Italy, 1943-1944

Content description

REEL 1 Background in Blantyre and Cowdenbeath, GB, 1918-1939: family; civilian work including thoughts about joining navy; call-up to militia and joining of Black Watch; train journey to Perth. Aspects of period as private with Black Watch Depot in GB, 7/1939-10/1939: arrival and journey to Queen's Barracks; first night in army including background of recruits; memories of Private Archie Heggie; memories of NCOs; arguments over cleaning teeth; drill; weapons training; rations; leisure activities; route marches; troops unable to settle into army; discipline including story of Private McCale boxing; NCOs in squad; story of guard duty on tunnel; knowledge of approaching war; reactions of parents to service; details of pay. Aspects of period as private with 4th Bn Black Watch in GB, 7/1939-1/1940: posting and journey to Gillyman Barracks in Cove; changes in battalion; relationship with Territorial troops. REEL 2 Continues: details of NCO course undertaken with Scots Guards; heating at Salamanca Barracks in Aldershot; activities of unit including exercises; field craft training; opinion of training; embarkation leave; knowledge of posting abroad; journey to Southampton and voyage to Le Havre. Aspects of period as private with 4th Bn Black Watch in France, 1/1940-6/1940: journey to Yvetot; memories of Captain Howe; march to Caudebec; reception from civilians; latrines; rations including accommodation and sleeping arrangements; story of church parade in Hinges; hospitalisation with hernia; marches to Le Mans and reunion with regiment; fate of battalion; story of crossing bridge at Caen; details of journey to Cherbourg. REEL 3 Continues: scenes in harbour; attempt to board HMT Lancastria; boarding of ship; air raids during disembarkation; arrival in Poole; journey to Bournemouth; accommodation; relationship with civilians; knowledge of Allied evacuation; background to reunion with battalion; help given to colleague; discipline; issue of tropical kit at Southampton; details of voyage to Gibraltar. Aspects of period as private with 4th Bn Black Watch in Gibraltar and Morocco, 1940-1943: accommodation; duties of battalion; details of military presence; building of airfield; roads; opinion of posting; unloading ships; relationship with navy; leisure activities including story of reunion; details and opinion of posting; news of posting to Tangiers; equipment issued; relationship with Charles Maguito from British Legation. REEL 4 Continues: details of Tangier and role; memories of British Legation staff; New Year celebrations; funerals and weddings attended; other members of army at British Legation; length of posting and refusal of extension; rations; joining of 6th Battalion; voyage to Port Said. Aspects of period as private with 6th Bn Black Watch in North Africa, 1943-1944: contact with civilians at Port Said; invasion training including description and firing of Bangalore torpedo and cancellation of planned invasion of Rhodes; story of weekend leave in Cairo including reason for not drinking; voyage to Naples. Aspects of operations as private with 6th Bn Black Watch in Italy and NCO, 1944: journey to frontline; description of sangars; terrain and position. REEL 5 Continues: story of Freddy MacArthur's questioning of orders during a house raid; treatment given to Private Kenney Grey's phosphorous burns; reactions to situation; story of trying to have man removed from patrol; use of mortars; river crossing exercises; activity at Inferno; scenes in Cassino on arrival including description of the Mad Mile; story of near miss from Nebelwerfer; events in Chemist's Shop position including shellshock of captain and attack on German soldier; inability to collect wounded soldier. REEL 6 Continues: description of withdrawal from position; rest at outpost; details of Headquarters in crypt; rest period; details of subsequent advance up Liri Valley including opposition faced and supply situation; advance on Rome; rest period; opinion of mistake made by US Army; visit to Rome including reception from civilians and meeting with Pope Pius XII; problems from noise during advance to Monte Scalari; advance with tanks; NCO course undertaken; promotion to lance corporal; story of wounding at Coriander Ridge; details of wounds; evacuation and medical treatment received; details of voyage to Liverpool aboard HMHS Atlantis. Aspects of hospitalisation in GB, 1944-1945: details of hospital; visit from mother; length of stay; Scottish hospitals stayed in; medical treatment received. REEL 7 Continues: pain relief; final operation; demobilisation from Redford Barracks. Aspects of period as civilian in GB from 1945: course undertaken; civilian work; religion during service and contact with padre; further details of withdrawal to Cherbourg; rations gained from land in Italy; details of Tommy cookers; supply of rations; memories of Charlie Skee; contact with and opinion of US troops; opinion of Polish troops; settling into civilian life; comradeship in army.

Courtesy IWM March 2014
Copyright Reserved IWM

Skip to content

- Sign in / Register

Search

Main menu

- About IWM
- Collections and Research
- Groups and Schools
- Shop
- First World War Centenary

- IWM London
London
- Find out more Visiting Information
Manchester
- What's On Visiting Information
Cambridgeshire
- What's On Visiting Information
London
- What's On Visiting Information
London
- What's On Visiting Information Back
McGeever, Frank (IWM interview)

</body>

© IWM

• [Redacted]

© IWM

• [Redacted]

© IWM

• [Redacted]

© IWM

[Redacted]

• 24617

[Redacted]

2003-02-18

[Redacted]

• Second World War

[Redacted]

• object category: IWM interview

[Redacted]

- IWM (Production company)
- Baker, Lindsay (recorder)
- McGeever, Frank (interviewee/speaker)

[Redacted]

sound

This item is available to share and reuse under the terms of the IWM Non Commercial Licence.

If you are interested in the full range of licenses available for this material, please contact one of our collections sales and licensing teams.

British private served with Black Watch Depot in GB, 1939; served with 4th Bn Black Watch in GB, France, Gibraltar and Morocco, 1939-1943; private and NCO served with 6th Bn Black Watch in North Africa and Italy, 1943-1944

Content description

REEL 1 Background in Blantyre and Cowdenbeath, GB, 1918-1939: family; civilian work including thoughts about joining navy; call-up to militia and joining of Black Watch; train journey to Perth. Aspects of period as private with Black Watch Depot in GB, 7/1939-10/1939: arrival and journey to Queen's Barracks; first night in army including background of recruits; memories of Private Archie Heggie; memories of NCOs; arguments over cleaning teeth; drill; weapons training; rations; leisure activities; route marches; troops unable to settle into army; discipline including story of Private McCale boxing; NCOs in squad; story of guard duty on tunnel; knowledge of approaching war; reactions of parents to service; details of pay. Aspects of period as private with 4th Bn Black Watch in GB, 7/1939-1/1940: posting and journey to Gillyman Barracks in Cove; changes in battalion; relationship with Territorial troops. REEL 2 Continues: details of NCO course undertaken with Scots Guards; heating at Salamanca Barracks in Aldershot; activities of unit including exercises; field craft training; opinion of training; embarkation leave; knowledge of posting abroad; journey to Southampton and voyage to Le Havre. Aspects of period as private with 4th Bn Black Watch in France, 1/1940-6/1940: journey to Yvetot; memories of Captain Howe; march to Caudebec; reception from civilians; latrines; rations including accommodation and sleeping arrangements; story of church parade in Hinges; hospitalisation with hernia; marches to Le Mans and reunion with regiment; fate of battalion; story of crossing bridge at Caen; details of journey to Cherbourg. REEL 3 Continues: scenes in harbour; attempt to board HMT Lancastria; boarding of ship; air raids during disembarkation; arrival in Poole; journey to Bournemouth; accommodation; relationship with civilians; knowledge of Allied evacuation; background to reunion with battalion; help given to colleague; discipline; issue of tropical kit at Southampton; details of voyage to Gibraltar. Aspects of period as private with 4th Bn Black Watch in Gibraltar and Morocco, 1940-1943: accommodation; duties of battalion; details of military presence; building of airfield; roads; opinion of posting; unloading ships; relationship with navy; leisure activities including story of reunion; details and opinion of posting; news of posting to Tangiers; equipment issued; relationship with Charles Maguito from British Legation. REEL 4 Continues: details of Tangier and role; memories of British Legation staff; New Year celebrations; funerals and weddings attended; other members of army at British Legation; length of posting and refusal of extension; rations; joining of 6th Battalion; voyage to Port Said. Aspects of period as private with 6th Bn Black Watch in North Africa, 1943-1944: contact with civilians at Port Said; invasion training including description and firing of Bangalore torpedo and cancellation of planned invasion of Rhodes; story of weekend leave in Cairo including reason for not drinking; voyage to Naples. Aspects of operations as private with 6th Bn Black Watch in Italy and NCO, 1944: journey to frontline; description of sangars; terrain and position. REEL 5 Continues: story of Freddy MacArthur's questioning of orders during a house raid; treatment given to Private Kenney Grey's phosphorous burns; reactions to situation; story of trying to have man removed from patrol; use of mortars; river crossing exercises; activity at Inferno; scenes in Cassino on arrival including description of the Mad Mile; story of near miss from Nebelwerfer; events in Chemist's Shop position including shellshock of captain and attack on German soldier; inability to collect wounded soldier. REEL 6 Continues: description of withdrawal from position; rest at outpost; details of Headquarters in crypt; rest period; details of subsequent advance up Liri Valley including opposition faced and supply situation; advance on Rome; rest period; opinion of mistake made by US Army; visit to Rome including reception from civilians and meeting with Pope Pius XII; problems from noise during advance to Monte Scalari; advance with tanks; NCO course undertaken; promotion to lance corporal; story of wounding at Coriander Ridge; details of wounds; evacuation and medical treatment received; details of voyage to Liverpool aboard HMHS Atlantis. Aspects of hospitalisation in GB, 1944-1945: details of hospital; visit from mother; length of stay; Scottish hospitals stayed in; medical treatment received. REEL 7 Continues: pain relief; final operation; demobilisation from Redford Barracks. Aspects of period as civilian in GB from 1945: course undertaken; civilian work; religion during service and contact with padre; further details of withdrawal to Cherbourg; rations gained from land in Italy; details of Tommy cooks; supply of rations; memories of Charlie Skee; contact with and opinion of US troops; opinion of Polish troops; settling into civilian life; comradeship in army.